

KEE MEETS WITH 16 NEW MEMBERS OF U.N. — Meeting with representatives of 16 newly-independent nations recently admitted to the United Nations — Cyprus and 15 African countries — President Eisenhower "table hops" on a covered terrace at the White House. He appealed to the African leaders to resist Communist attempts to subvert or dominate their nations. Later the President said his visitors told him they were anxious to follow America's lead in promoting justice and equal opportunity throughout the world.

GE Union Defies Strike Orders From Chieftain

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—Striking workers at the General Electric Co. plant here heeded instructions of their local leaders today and returned to their jobs.

The return to work followed a split between local and top leaders of the International Union of Electrical Workers.

While the Schenectady workers passed through hastily established picket lines, set up by the IUE with union officials and members from other areas, the strike elsewhere in the nation entered its third week with no signs of progress toward settlement.

Approximately 20 men carrying pickets congregated at the main gate of the Schenectady plant, the headquarters facility of GE. Small groups of pickets patrolled at other plant gates.

There was no disturbance as some of the early reporting first-shift workers entered the plant.

Earlier, John H. Callahan, chairman of the IUE-GE conference board, which called the strike, said he expected IUE President James B. Carey to order the pickets in.

Frank Florio, a member of IUE Local 301 here and secretary of the IUE-GE conference board, was among the pickets. He said others picketing the Schenectady plant and distributing leaflets to the returning workers were members of Local 301 and of the IUE-GE locals in Pittsfield, Mass., and Indiana.

Buses and automobiles carrying workers to their jobs were permitted to enter the plant grounds.

A company spokesman said GE planned to resume full production at the Schenectady plant, which has been idle since Oct. 6, when the IUE's 8,700-member Local 301 belatedly joined the nationwide walkout.

The back-to-work move was the decision of leaders of Local 301. A spokesman for the local said, however, that the local did not contemplate seceding from the IUE.

Full Steam Ahead For Pumpkin Show

Hustle and bustle Pumpkin Show activity started here early yesterday as numerous booths and concession stands moved into the mid-town section.

Work continued at a quick pace today as more concessions moved in for the famous three-day stand which opens noon Wednesday. The sound of hammers clanging against nails had its familiar October ring in Circleville.

Pumpkin Show officials Bob Colville, Ned Dresbach and Jim Shea said uptown work appeared to be progressing at a usual satisfying pace.

They said heavier work probably will move into high gear tomorrow in final preparation for the Wednesday opening. Traffic continued today on Main and Court Sts., but tomorrow probably will see transient vehicles directed to detours which have been set up.

DETOUR routes for traffic here during Pumpkin Show have been completed by Circleville Police.

Eastbound traffic coming into Circleville will turn north on Western Ave. to High St., head east to Court St., turn north on Court St. to Northridge Road and then head on eastward on the Route 188 detour.

Traffic desiring to head east on Route 56 will turn south at Western Ave. to Mound St., drive east to Washington St., then turn north to E. Main St. and continue to Route 56.

Eight Persons Are Injured In Two Crashes on Highways

Eight persons were injured in two car crashes in this area yesterday.

The first crash came at 5:05 p. m. on Route 23 and East St. intersection south of here. The other was at 6:25 p. m. on the Route 62 and Circleville-London Northern Road 21 miles northwest of Circleville.

The first crash involved cars operated by Billy Lee Wiseman, 19, Columbus, and Charles Hixon, 77, Chillicothe.

Wiseman, a passenger, Mildred Daniels, 19, Columbus, suffered lacerations and abrasions. Hixon suffered multiple lacerations, bruises, chest injuries and possible fractures. His wife, Myrtle, 77, received a laceration on the left eyelid.

The injured were taken to Berger Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Hixon were treated, then transferred to Chillicothe Hospital.

Wiseman told Deputy Homer Adams the Hixon auto pulled onto Route 23 in front of his northbound auto. He said he veered to the right in an unsuccessful attempt to avoid the other vehicle.

Deputy Adams said both cars were heavily damaged.

The second accident involved a car driven by Frank J. Drees, 27, Cincinnati. He suffered contusion and lacerations.

Passengers injured were Gertrude Hermeling, 21, Paula Wellen, 25, and Heinz Goldschmidt, 27, all of the Cincinnati area, all suffered lacerations. The injured were taken to a Columbus hospital.

Drees told Deputy Dwight Radcliff he attempted to pass another southbound vehicle. He said the vehicles traveling west will use the same routes. Traffic coming off Route 188 will head south on Court St. to High St., turn right to Western Ave., then left to W. Main and then on westward on Route 22.

Route 56 vehicles will drive through the city on E. Main St. to Washington St., turn left to Mound, head west on Mound to Western Ave., turn right onto Western Ave. to W. Main and then on westward on Route 22 and Route 56.

Police Chief Robert Temple said no parking will be permitted on either side of Western Ave. from Main to High Sts. He said parking on Western Ave. from Main St. south to Mound St. will be permitted only on the west side.

TEMPLE said the anticipated heavy flow of traffic from Route 22 will require all driving space on N. Western Ave. He said Route 56 traffic probably will be lighter, allowing parking at least on one side of S. Western Ave.

The chief said the traffic problem was complicated this year due to the already required detour on Route 22 which is under repair east of Circleville.

Last year eastbound traffic was allowed to use the S. Western Ave. - Mound St. - Washington St. route. This route is not possible this year due to the long approach to the Route 188 detour.

Ike Takes Off On Speaking Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower took off by plane today on a 6,728-mile speaking tour that will take him into six states, including some major battleground areas of the presidential campaign.

The President and a small party left Andrews Air Force Base, near Washington, in a Boeing jet operated by the Military Air Transport Service.

The White House is calling the trip nonpolitical, but many backers of the Republican presidential ticket obviously hope the tour will reap dividends for its standard bearers Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Eisenhower's trip also will take him into Mexico.

Las Vegas Odds Shift To Kennedy Again

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The Las Vegas odds on the presidential election have shifted in favor of Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon was an 8-to-5 to 9-to-5 favorite right after the national convention, but the odds later to 7-to-5.

Saturday they changed again, and this time Kennedy emerged the favorite. The general price was 6-to-5 but one establishment made Kennedy at 7-to-5 favorite.

Castro Claims U.S. Seeks To Provoke Cuba Incident

Nixon Presses Quemoy Dispute

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon kept Quemoy and Matsu alive as a campaign issue today as he sought again to puncture Democratic strength in New England.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press chief, said the Republican presidential candidate will have more to say about the status of the offshore China islands in campaign appearances here and in other Connecticut cities on which Sen. John F. Kennedy counts heavily for Democratic votes in November.

Kennedy repeated Sunday night that his stand on the defense of Quemoy and Matsu apparently jibes with that of the Eisenhower administration. And he said he is prepared to drop the islands from the campaign.

The White House Saturday declared President Eisenhower and Nixon are in agreement on the little islands a few miles off the coast of Communist China that they should be defended against aggression that is ultimately pointed toward the Formosa stronghold of Nationalist China.

In the second of their televised debates, Nixon had said Quemoy and Matsu must be protected as segments of "the area of freedom." Kennedy had said they should not be abandoned under the muzzle of Communist guns, but he termed them indefensible and called for a clearly drawn line of defense around Formosa.

Nixon met Sunday with former U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, his vice presidential running mate, and other GOP leaders to map out the conclusive last three weeks of the campaign.

Nixon and Lodge emerged in expressed agreement on the question of a Neopro in the cabinet, a matter on which Lodge had spoken favorably in New York last week.

They were in expressed agreement, too, on prospects for victory.

Nixon and Lodge huddled in a Hartford hotel for the better part of an hour Sunday as they took time off from active campaigning to take a sight on the home stretch of the campaign. Lodge later accompanied the vice president to a conference of high echelon political advisers.

When they came out, Nixon said in answer to a question that he would name his cabinet members on a standard of caliber rather than race or creed. This, he said, did not signify he would—or would not—appoint a Negro.

Lodge had told a Harlem audience last Wednesday night that the next administration, if Republican, would include a Negro in the cabinet. Later, he said this could not be considered as a pledge, inasmuch as vice presidents don't appoint cabinet members.

Reports of the remarks had disconcerted some Southern Republicans.

Anti-Catholic Rally Hit by Presbyterian

NEW YORK (AP)—The executive director of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee has protested what he calls the plan of many Protestant churches to "pervert" Reformation Sunday by turning it into an anti-Catholic, anti-Kennedy rally.

Some conservative Protestants, seeking to defeat Sen. John F. Kennedy because he is a Roman Catholic, have announced plans to deliver anti-Catholic sermons on the anniversary.

Meanwhile, a prominent Protestant Episcopal churchman says a flood of anti-Catholic literature has all but stopped rational discussion of legitimate issues in the presidential election.

Bruce K. Felknor, director of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee, said in a lay sermon at the Bedford, N.Y., Presbyterian Church Sunday: "I am ashamed to say to you that this anniversary in 1900 will be perverted from a sacred to what I think is a quite profane use in many churches in our country."

Reformation Sunday, Oct. 30, marks the day in 1517 when Martin Luther nailed to a Wittenberg Cathedral door his "ninety-five theses," thus initiating the Protestant Reformation.

Felknor, a Presbyterian, said: "In every election cursed by dirty campaigning, the worst lies always appear at the last minute."

"Article VI of the Constitution is unequivocal: 'But no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.'"

East German Artist Seeks West Freedom

BERLIN (AP) — One of East Germany's leading art historians, Dr. Sigfried Asche, has fled to West Germany, a private intelligence agency reported today.

The Information Bureau West quoted Asche as saying he had left with his family because it was no longer possible to work with scientific objectivity under Communist rule.

2 More Yanks Executed in Invasion Plot

Fidel Says Invaders Aimed To Create Scene at Naval Base

HAVANA (AP)—A Cuban firing squad Sunday executed two more Americans from the small invasion force that Fidel Castro charged was part of a U.S. plot to provoke an incident at Guantanamo Naval Base.

The prime minister directly linked the 27-man expeditionary force that landed on Cuba's north-east coast Oct. 5 with mounting tension over the big naval base the United States holds on the island by treaty.

Castro said on television that the small band intended to create the pretext for U. S. intervention in Cuba by trying to form a "zone of operations and zone of perturbation" near the base.

The United States formally charged before the United Nations last Friday that Castro himself appeared bent on provoking an incident over the base.

Firing squad bullets just before dawn cut down a Louisiana adventurer and a former U.S. Marine seeking to avenge the Castro government's seizure of his father's Cuban plantation.

The two Americans were: Allan Dale Thompson, 36, a native of Queen City, Tex., who grew up in Mooringsport, La., and worked in fishing camps in that area.

Robert O. Fuller, 25, whose father moved to Miami, Fla., after confiscation of his property in Cuba.

Another American who landed with them, Anthony Zarba, 27, of Somerville, Mass., was executed with seven Cuban insurgents at the same firing range in San Juan Valley last Thursday.

A fourth American, Leslie Bradley, formerly of Minneapolis, learns his fate today when a military tribunal hands down its verdict after a two-day trial. Bradley and 12 others were charged with plotting a fake invasion of Nicaragua from Cuba to embarrass Castro. The Cuban Prime Minister said the plot was with U. S. State Department cooperation.

Bradley faces a 16 years prison term if convicted. The others on trial with him are a Dominican, a Nicaraguan and 10 Cubans.

A prediction of more invasions against the Castro regime came from Fuller's grieving father, William, in Miami, Fla.

"There'll be other expeditions," Fuller told newsmen. Some may fail, but sooner or later the Castro regime may fall."

The younger Fuller, who served with the U.S. Marine in Korea, testified at his trial in Santiago that peasants had aided the invaders.

The court rejected appeals for clemency for Thompson and Fuller, contending that the Americans and the Cubans should get equal treatment.

Castro disclosed that one of his former cabinet members, Manolo Ray, was "one of the little leaders of the counter-revolution."

Ray, a bomb expert who fought with Castro against the regime of Fulgencio Batista, was replaced as public works minister late last year by left-winger Osmani Cienfuegos.

Castro admitted concern, however, about the allegiance of the Cuban navy. He threatened to dissolve the force unless it shapes up in thorough revolutionary fashion. He disclosed two big naval installations in Havana and Cienfuegos had been deactivated, along with several warships.

Red China Labels Manpower Key in War

HONG KONG (AP)—Sources close to the Chinese Communists here said today Mao Tse-tung's theory that manpower, not nuclear bombs, is the weapon to win the next war is being hammered into the mind of every commune member throughout Red China.

The theory is contained in the recently published selected writings of Mao.

The sources said commune members have been told nuclear weapons may destroy many cities but it takes manpower to occupy and run them.

Jack Jabs Nixon In Ohio Address

DAYTON (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy said today America's security as well as its leadership would be threatened if Richard M. Nixon is elected president.

Campaigning in Southwestern Ohio, the Democratic presidential candidate hammered at what he called "Republican complacency" and emphasized his own conviction that "we must do better."

He compared Nixon unfavorably with former President Herbert Hoover as he flung out at Republican domestic policies, especially what he called a high interest program that benefits banks at the expense of people.

Turning to the foreign policy debate, Kennedy drew a parallel between what he called "the Republican position," and that of Stanley Baldwin, prime minister of Britain in the decade before World War II.

Kennedy, whose first book was an examination of British policy during this period, said Baldwin did not call for enough exertion, and as a result the free world was almost lost.

Kennedy said the basic issue between him and Nixon is whether this country could do more. He asked whether enough was being done, and brought a shout of "no" from the crowd.

Latin 'Nixon' Is Loser

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) Gov. Luis Munoz Marin, head of the Popular Democratic party, won Puerto Rico's version of the Nixon-Kennedy debate by default Sunday night. His Republican opponent for governor, Luis Ferre, didn't show up.

Harold L. Ickes served as secretary of the interior for 13 years, a record for members of the president's cabinet.

Jack Jobs . .

Ohio marked by increasingly direct jobs at his Republican opponent.

Kennedy said today that people are in trouble because of creeping unemployment, persistently depressed areas and farm problems that strike the small farmer especially.

The 1960 troubles are real, even if they are not exactly like the depression of the 1930s, he said. "There may not be Herbert Hoover but there is Richard Nixon," he added. "And sometimes I wish it were Mr. Hoover instead."

Kennedy said "for at least Mr. Hoover cared," adding "at least he tried to do something. But Mr. Nixon says he's satisfied. He says we've never had it so good."

Kennedy said various interest rates have increased by 34 to 95 per cent under the present administration. "It has raised the rate on everything but the air we breathe," he said.

As a result, he said, farmers can't buy equipment, small businessmen cannot modernize to compete with big corporations, schools are not built so that overcrowding and overwork of teachers results—and would-be home owners cannot buy, to the detriment of businesses dependent on construction.

"I oppose rigid management of the money system in any special interest," Kennedy said. He promised, if elected, to strike "a whole-some balance," although he acknowledged this is not an easy task.

Speaking in Southwest Ohio today, Kennedy broke new ground in the state he has visited several times during his campaign. Ohio is a 25 electoral vote prize and one about which Democrats are hopeful.

Kennedy said the United States military program has been living off its own fat and that Nixon has struck no note of urgency about it. The rate of military growth, he said, is not in favor of this country.

On another subject in his televised interview, Kennedy said he repudiates the general argument that a vote against him is a sign he had not seen and therefore was not specifically condemning what was described as a broadsheet distributed by some of his supporters in the labor movement making such an implication.

On civil rights, he said he thinks a president should pick the best men available for the cabinet whether their ancestry was Negro, white or any particular nationality. But he also said that more should be done about bringing Negroes into the higher government posts, including judgeships.

India Seeks To Calm Post-Khrush Storm

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Fifteen countries on five continents pushed a resolution today to calm things down in the U.N. General Assembly after the stormy visit of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Indian Defense Minister V.K. Krishna Menon planned to introduce the resolution formally in a one-hour speech ending the general policy debate in the 99-nation assembly.

The resolution would have the assembly call for full cooperation with the United Nations, ask all countries to refrain from actions likely to aggravate international tensions and urge that immediate steps be taken to solve world problems.

It speaks of a deterioration in international relations "both in the General Assembly and in the world" and says there is a need to arrest this trend because peace is threatened.

There was a possibility that the assembly would begin debating the resolution this afternoon, after a speech by visiting King Frederik IX of Denmark.

Sponsors of the resolution are Austria, Bolivia, Burma, Ecuador, Finland, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Mexico, Morocco, Panama, Tunisia, the United Arab Republic, Venezuela and Yugoslavia.

The idea for the resolution was Menon's. A source said it came to him when President Sekou Toure of Guinea addressed the assembly Thursday.

The day before, a debate over colonialism had turned rowdy. Khrushchev had banged the desk with his shoe, and the assembly president, Frederick H. Boland of Ireland had adjourned the meeting abruptly after a Romanian delegate had hinted Boland was biased.

GE Union Defies

for Local 301, said in a televised statement Sunday night he was convinced Carey "has nothing more in mind than having a fight to the end with GE, regardless of the consequences, even if this fight to the end results in dissolution of the union."

Callahan, of Schenectady, said the strike still was on at the 55 GE plants across the nation.

Carey, in New York, branded the back-to-work move as "a direct violation of the IUE constitution."

"We urge all locals to hold firm and continue the magnificent job they have done so far," Carey said.

The executive committee of the IUE local at Pittsfield, Mass., has called upon the conference board to reconsider a company truce offer. The board scheduled a meeting in New York City Tuesday on the request.

GE's truce proposal is to extend the contract that expired Oct. 1, with the exception of a cost-of-living escalator clause, provided IUE members returned to work during negotiation of a new pact.

The officers of Local 301 at Schenectady accepted the truce Saturday night. They had been authorized by the local's membership to continue or suspend the strike as they saw fit.

The IUE seeks a three-year contract with a 3½ per cent pay increase each year. Wages under the old contract averaged $2.30 to $2.40 an hour.

GE has offered 3 per cent immediately and another 4 per cent beginning April 1962. GE has insisted, however, on ending the cost-of-living escalator clause.

AP Nationwide Survey Finds Kennedy Gaining on Nixon

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrat John F. Kennedy apparently has pulled almost even with Republican Richard M. Nixon as they spring toward the finish in their hectic race for the presidency.

But a new Associated Press survey indicates that—with election day only three weeks ahead—neither candidate has been able to grasp a clear advantage in 17 states numbering nearly half of the 536 electoral votes.

It is among this undecided group that the winner likely will be decided. He will need 269 electoral votes.

This latest AP checkover of the political situation in all 50 states gave some evidence that Sen. Kennedy might be gaining an edge in some of the big doubtful states—like New York (45), Pennsylvania (32), California (32), and Michigan (20).

At the same time, some of the states in this group seemed to be trending toward Vice President Nixon—Minnesota (11), Utah (4) and New Mexico (4).

And in a number of states credited either to Kennedy or Nixon, it was possible the balance might tip the other way before voting time.

The survey indicates: Nixon is ahead in 19 states with 141 electoral votes. Kennedy is credited with the lead in 14 states with 129 electoral votes. In a few Southern states, a scattering of Democratic electors might not vote for Kennedy even if he won their states.

The 17 states rated as tossups account for 267 electoral votes—close to enough to elect a president by themselves.

In the previous survey two weeks ago, Nixon was regarded as out front in 22 states with 161 electoral votes; Kennedy as leading in 14 states with 123 votes. And 14 states with 253 votes were listed as in doubt.

Thus, the indication is that Nixon has dropped by three states and 20 electoral votes. Kennedy has the same number of states as the last time—14—but has added 6 votes. And the doubtful group has grown by three states.

Kentucky (10), Colorado (6) and Arizona (4) moved from the Nixon column into the tossup class. Louisiana (10) went from the doubtful group into Kennedy's column. And Montana (4), rated last time as for Kennedy, slipped into the doubtful category.

Other tossup states: Ohio (25), Texas (24), North Carolina (14), Missouri (13), Tennessee (11) and Mississippi (8).

As before, the new AP survey combined the observations of its own veteran political reporters, the judgments of seasoned newspaper analysts, the opinions of political leaders and the results of certain reliable polls.

The material was gathered during the past week and might not reflect the full impact of the growing dispute between Kennedy and Nixon over the offshore Chinese islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

However, it does reflect some effects of the first two Nixon-Kennedy TV debates.

In Washington state (9) and Wisconsin (12), for example, some observers felt Nixon might have gained on Kennedy in the second face-to-face test. On the other hand, Kennedy seems to have benefitted in Colorado (6) and Wyoming (3).

The religious issue continues to be an unknown quantity. From some states, there are reports it is slackening off. From others, the word is that Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion is hurting his chances.

In the past two weeks, Kennedy's prospects have looked rosier in some of the Southern states that had looked shaky or worse for him.

The AP survey indicates these states now are considered for Nixon, to a greater or lesser extent: Delaware (3), Hawaii (3), Florida (10), Idaho (4), Illinois (27), Iowa (10), Indiana (13), Kansas (8), Maine (5), Nebraska (6), New Hampshire (4), North Dakota (4).

Also, Oklahoma (8), Oregon (6), South Carolina (8), South Dakota (4), Vermont (3), Virginia (12), Wyoming (3).

Considered for Kennedy, by varying degrees: Alabama (possibly 9 of 11), Alaska (3), Arkansas (8), Connecticut (8), Georgia (maximum of 12, possibly only 8), Louisiana (10), Maryland (9), Massachusetts (16), Nevada (3), New Jersey (16).

Also, Rhode Island (4), Washington (9), West Virginia (8), Wisconsin (12).

'VIKTORY' — Viktor Jaanits, the 29-year-old Estonian who was an officer on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's liner Baltika until he jumped ship and defected to the U.S., holds up his hands in a "Viktor" sign at the U.S. Immigration Service office in New York. Since the defection involves Khrushchev's official party, it is under top level diplomatic scrutiny.

Ohio Golf Ball Firm Is Offered for Sale

CHICAGO (AP)—The Worthington (Golf) Ball Co. of Elyria, Ohio, will be sold for an undisclosed amount of cash to the Comptometer Corp. of Chicago, effective Nov. 1, if Worthington stockholders approve—and more than two-thirds of them already have.

The transaction was announced Sunday by the presidents of both firms. Robert F. Smith, president of Worthington, which employs more than 200 people, will be in charge of Comptometer's Worthington division if the deal goes through. He said there will be no change in personnel or methods.

Hoax Bombing Trial Opens in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—Edward Schwartz, 56, of Cincinnati went on trial in U.S. District Court today charged with making a hoax bomb call. He was accused of phoning Delta Air Lines last Labor Day saying explosive was in a passenger's luggage. The plane was held up 90 minutes at Greater Cincinnati Airport for a search.

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A group of several thousand persons sang hymns and recited the rosary in a walk Sunday around the grounds of Ursuline Roman Catholic school and Motherhouse. The event, called a pilgrimage for peace, drew participants from 23 parishes in southwest Ohio.

AP Nationwide Survey Finds Kennedy Gaining on Nixon

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrat John F. Kennedy apparently has pulled almost even with Republican Richard M. Nixon as they spring toward the finish in their hectic race for the presidency.

But a new Associated Press survey indicates that—with election day only three weeks ahead—neither candidate has been able to grasp a clear advantage in 17 states numbering nearly half of the 36 electoral votes.

It is among this undecided group that the winner likely will be decided. He will need 269 electoral votes.

This latest AP checkover of the political situation in all 50 states gave some evidence that Sen. Kennedy might be gaining an edge in some of the big doubtful states—like New York (45), Pennsylvania (32), California (32), and Michigan (20).

At the same time, some of the states in this group seemed to be tending toward Vice President Nixon—Minnesota (11), Utah (4) and New Mexico (4).

And in a number of states credited either to Kennedy or Nixon, it was possible the balance might tip the other way before voting time.

The survey indicates: Nixon is ahead in 19 states with 141 electoral votes. Kennedy is credited with the lead in 14 states with 129 electoral votes. In a few Southern states, a scattering of Democratic electors might not vote for Kennedy even if he won their states.

The 17 states rated as tossups account for 267 electoral votes—close to enough to elect a president by themselves.

In the previous survey two weeks ago, Nixon was regarded as out front in 22 states with 161 electoral votes; Kennedy as leading in 14 states with 123 votes. And 14 states with 253 votes were listed as in doubt.

Thus, the indication is that Nixon has dropped by three states and 20 electoral votes. Kennedy has the same number of states as the last time—14—but has added 6 votes. And the doubtful group has grown by three states.

Kentucky (10), Colorado (6) and Arizona (4) moved from the Nixon column into the tossup class. Louisiana (10) went from the doubtful group into Kennedy's column. And Montana (4), rated last time as for Kennedy, slipped into the doubtful category.

Other tossup states: Ohio (25), Texas (24), North Carolina (14), Missouri (13), Tennessee (11) and Mississippi (8).

As before, the new AP survey combined the observations of its own veteran political reporters, the judgments of seasoned newspaper analysts, the opinions of political leaders and the results of certain reliable polls.

The material was gathered during the past week and might not reflect the full impact of the growing dispute between Kennedy and Nixon over the offshore Chinese islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

However, it does reflect some effects of the first two Nixon-Kennedy TV debates.

In Washington state (9) and Wisconsin (12), for example, some observers felt Nixon might have gained on Kennedy in the second face-to-face test. On the other hand, Kennedy seems to have benefitted in Colorado (6) and Wyoming (3).

The religious issue continues to be an unknown quantity. From some states, there are reports it is slacking off. From others, the word is that Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion is hurting his chances.

In the past two weeks, Kennedy's prospects have looked rosier in some of the Southern states that had looked shaky or worse for him.

The AP survey indicates these states now are considered for Nixon, to a greater or lesser extent: Delaware (3), Hawaii (3), Florida (10), Idaho (4), Illinois (27), Iowa (10), Indiana (13), Kansas (8), Maine (5) Nebraska (6), New Hampshire (4), North Dakota (4).

Also, Oklahoma (8), Oregon (6), South Carolina (8), South Dakota (4), Vermont (3), Virginia (12), Wyoming (3).

Considered for Kennedy, by varying degrees: Alabama (possibly 9 of 11), Alaska (3), Arkansas (8), Connecticut (8), Georgia (maximum of 12, possibly only 8), Louisiana (10), Maryland (9), Massachusetts (16), Nevada (3), New Jersey (16).

Also, Rhode Island (4), Washington (9), West Virginia (8), Wisconsin (12).

Now It's Culottes

Well, men, the culotte's the thing in women's wear this fall.

Even Mainbocher's has succumbed. And that's something, because Mainbocher's is described by a fashion reporter as "one of the last citadels in the United States of two things — the made-to-order creation and fashions that conform to absolute, irrefragable good taste."

A culotte, in case you're wondering, is a skirt which looks like a skirt but is divided — disguised pants, if you will.

But as interesting as the dresses is Mainbocher's explanation: "I'm really tired of all this getting-in-and-out-of-taxis talk. I did not design any for daytime wear. I think they are right for evening dinner parties."

"Nowadays, society, intellectual and artistic circles mingle wonderfully. The walk after dinner is stimulating. It is perfectly correct for a young woman to curl herself up on the sofa."

Men, that sounds like more than a revolution in clothes — that's a revolution in etiquette. Even dinner parties will not be safe from modern woman's seemingly irresistible desire to wear men's attire.

"Don't say you haven't been warned, as the saying goes."

What the Mailman Brought Today

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

You are far more likely to die from a blood transfusion than a commercial airplane crash. Americans now have 5½ million transfusions annually. The fatality rate is about 1 in 1,000.

It's cheaper to have your teeth fixed when young. Three out of five U. S. dentists charge lower fees for children than adults.

Civilization requires someone to be on duty at all times. Now 16 per cent of the nation's workers perform their chores between 9 at night and 6 in the morning.

Celebrity oddities: Polly Bergen's full name is Polly Nellie Paulina Burgin Fields. Playwright Tennessee Williams has an ambition to be a successful songsmith: He has written the lyrics to three tunes, and is now a member of ASCAP.

Item for dieters: Medical annuals list 11 men and 6 women who weighed over 700 pounds. The champ: Miles Darden, a 19th Century Tennessean who tipped the scales at more than 1,000 pounds. Bowling is getting to be one of the nation's more coeducational sports. The game now has 16 million men players and 11 million women fans.

Nature lore: Can you name the only bird that walks upright like a man, and the only fish that swims upright? They are the penguin and the sea horse.

The cost of government: In 1888 each American's share of federal taxes was about $1.98. Today it costs more than that to get someone to fill out your tax return.

Sign in a medical building: "Patients will please refrain from exchanging symptoms. It only gets the doctors confused."

A good reason: Michigan abolished capital punishment in 1846 after a prisoner, convicted and executed, later was proved to have been innocent.

There's money in stamps. Inadvertently, a 24-cent stamp issued in 1918 was printed upside down. A corner block of four of these stamps is now valued at up to $35,000.

Cloud-high but sober: The average airline passenger doesn't drink while aloft. Records of national airlines show an average of only 17 drinks served per flight — on planes holding from 44 to 129 passengers.

Have you heard this before? Because of their poorly developed vocal cords, giraffes communicate with each other mainly by switching their tails.

The price of success: "There is plenty of room at the top," says Rosina Pagan, "but there is no room to sit down."

How things are done: A management report found that of the 130 letters a day the average company president gets, here is what happens to them: 50 per cent never even reach his eye. He takes some kind of action on 35 (including throwing some into the wastebasket). And 15 per cent he passes on to others to handle as they decide.

It was Alfred E. Smith who observed: "The American people never carry an umbrella. They prepare to walk in eternal sunshine."

Just Who Makes Cuban Policy?

By George Sokolsky

In June 1957, the "National Review" had this to say:

"The 'New York Times' seems to be taking over sponsorship of the revolt against President Batista of Cuba that is being led by the ex-law student, Fidel Castro, and his miscellaneous dissidents, locally and internationally backed by the Communists."

"Two months ago 'Times' correspondent Herbert L. Matthews, after spending a couple of days with Fidel in his Sierra Maestra camp, wrote an account that read like a Public Relations hand-out. Matthews is now back in Santiago, not far from the Sierra Maestra, wiring dispatches that would qualify him as chief of Fidel's psychological warfare section."

"Already in a quote attributed to 'a graduate student,' Matthews is displaying the Larger Vision: 'Fidel has lifted Cuba out of the inertia that was engulfing us as it has the people of the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela.'"

"We are now in the last quarter of 1959 and we know that Castro is not the angelic figure that Herbert Matthews painted him to be. We know that Cuba is a Kremlin satellite. We know it precisely now because Castro himself said so in an impromptu press interview at Idlewild airport. I listened to it on television. Castro did not use the word, satellite. But the implications were clear."

However, it was this same Herbert Matthews who was called in by the State Department to brief a new ambassador to Cuba.

In his testimony before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, Ambassador Earl E. T. Smith said:

"... Mr. Matthews informed me that he had very knowledgeable views of Cuba and Latin American nations, and had seen the same things take place in Spain. He believed that it would be in the best interest of Cuba and the best interest of the world in general when Batista was removed from office."

The following colloquy is significant:

"Mr. Sourwine. Mr. Smith, when you talked with Matthews to get the briefing before you went to Cuba, was he introduced to you as having any authority from the State Department or as being connected with the State Department in any way?"

"Mr. Smith. . . You asked me a short while ago who arranged the meeting with Mr. Matthews."

"Mr. Sourwine. And you said Mr. Wieland."

Mr. Smith. I said William Wieland, but William Wieland also had to have the approval of Roy Rubottom, who was then Assistant Secretary of State for Latin American Affairs. . .

"Mr. Sourwine. I asked if, when you were sent to Mr. Matthews for this briefing, he was introduced to you as having any official connection with the State Department or any authority from the Department?"

"Mr. Smith. Oh, no. I knew who he was, and they obviously knew I knew who he was, but I believe that they thought it would be a good idea for me to get the viewpoint of Herbert Matthews, and also I think that Herbert Matthews is the leading Latin American editorial writer for The New York Times. Obviously, the State Department would like to have the support of The New York Times. . . I believe there was a close connection. . . between the Latin American desk and Herbert Matthews. . . I would say that Mr. Wieland and all those who had anything to do with Cuba had a close connection with Herbert Matthews."

"I will go further than that. I will say that when I was Ambassador, that I was thoroughly aware of this, and sometimes made the remark in my own Embassy that Mr. Matthews was more familiar with the State Department thinking regarding Cuba than I was."

Herbert Matthews has been a reporter and correspondent since 1922. He has served in many foreign posts. He was "The New York Times" correspondent in the Spanish Civil War from 1936 to 1939, and during this period showed editorial sympathy for the side which has come to be an adjunct of international Communism.

The Spanish Civil War was a struggle among Communists, anarchists and the Falange for the control of Spain. Out of it eventually came the regime of Franco.

Like many foreign correspondents, Matthews became personally absorbed in this situation and his articles were more editorial than objective. It was this experience in Spain which won him recognition as an expert in Spanish and Latin American affairs. He influenced American public opinion in favor of Fidel Castro who is now our enemy.

Food with less labor," says Garst, "and I showed him how to do it."

Paragraph 19: V. V. Matskevich the Soviet Minister of Agriculture whom I escorted around the United States in 1955 saw Garst's farm and invited him to the Soviet Union. Garst went, sold Khrushchev some hybrid corn, and so impressed the Soviet Premier with his blunt opinions on how Russian agriculture could be put on the right track that Khrushchev accepted Garst's invitation to visit Coon Rapids.

The rest of the article goes on to tell of the success of Mr. Garst's methods in Russia. If any of my readers feel compassion toward the Russian people and are inclined to place all of the blame on the heads of the Russian leaders, then they should get the October 10, is sue of U. S. To The Editor:

I would very much like to express my feelings, in regards to the subject of wrecking yards in Pickaway County. I have been watching with much interest, the various letters to the editor that have appeared in the paper, written by some of the so-called civic minded people of our community, and it is almost comical to me to read some of their remarks.

We operate a 24 hour wrecker and towing service, as well as an auto salvage yard, so we are naturally very interested in these letters that have been appearing in print.

It is a funny thing, but some of the people that have written, or some like them are eh at creates our business. You would be surprised at the number of civic minded folks who are pulled out of wrecked automobiles every week, more dead than alive, many times because they simply didn't use their heads. Many times their autos are sold to one of the yards for salvage, just the same as any one else's car.

These people don't seem to realize that three must be an outlet for these wrecked cars. We are doing our best to furnish this outlet, in a fair and honest manner. To my notion, this is a fine and honorable business to be in. I have done this type of work for nearly four years, and I can't think of a anyone in this town that I would trade jobs with. The work is interesting, and most of the people that we deal with are good, honest, and reliable people, such as the new car dealers and the independent garages in this town.

Where do some of these people that are so opposed to us think the parts come from that are used in repairing their cars, when new parts aren't available? Many times this means the difference between getting a person's car back in immediate running order or waiting a couple of weeks for parts to come from the factory.

We are happy to be here in this community to serve the general public, and I only wish that some name or initials will be substituted. We will NOT use anonymous letters. We believe that a letter to the editor column can serve as a public forum. Now It's Culottes

Well, men, the culotte's the thing in women's wear this fall.

Even Mainbocher's has succumbed. And that's something, because Mainbocher's is described by a fashion reporter as "one of the last citadels in the United States of two things — the made-to-order creation and fashions that conform to absolute, irreproachable good taste."

A culotte, in case you're wondering, is a skirt which looks like a skirt but is divided — disguised pants, if you will.

But as interesting as the dresses is Mainbocher's explanation: "I'm really tired of all this getting-in-and-out-of-taxis talk. I did not design any for daytime wear. I think they are right for evening dinner parties."

Nowadays, society, intellectual and artistic circles mingle wonderfully. The walk after dinner is stimulating. It is perfectly correct for a young woman to curl herself up on the sofa."

Men, that sounds like more than a revolution in clothes — that's a revolution in etiquette. Even dinner parties will not be safe from modern woman's seemingly irresistible desire to wear men's attire.

"Don't say you haven't been warned, as the saying goes."

What the Mailman Brought Today

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

You are far more likely to die from a blood transfusion than a commercial airplane crash. Americans now have 5 1/2 million transfusions annually. The fatality rate is about 1 in 1,000.

It's cheaper to have your teeth fixed when young. Three out of five U. S. dentists charge lower fees for children than adults.

Civilization requires someone to be on duty at all times. Now 16 per cent of the nation's workers perform their chores between 9 at night and 6 in the morning.

Celebrity oddities: Polly Bergen's full name is Polly Nellie Paulina Burgin Fields. Playwright Tennessee Williams has an ambition to be a successful songsmith: He has written the lyrics to three tunes, and is now a member of ASCAP.

Item for dieters: Medical animals list 11 men and 6 women who weighed over 700 pounds. The champ: Miles Darden, a 19th Century Tennessean who tipped the scales at more than 1,000 pounds. Bowling is getting to be one of the nation's more coeducational sports. The game now has 16 million men players and 11 million women fans.

Nature lore: Can you name the only bird that walks upright like a man, and the only fish that swims upright? They are the penguin and the sea horse.

The cost of government: In 1885 each American's share of federal taxes was about $1.98. Today it costs more than that to get someone to fill out your tax return.

Sign in a medical building: "Patients will please refrain from exchanging symptoms. It only gets the doctors confused."

A good reason: Michigan abolished capital punishment in 1846 after a prisoner, convicted and executed, later was proved to have been innocent.

There's money in stamps. Inadvertently, a 24-cent stamp issued in 1918 was printed upside down. A corner block of four of these stamps is now valued at up to $35,000.

Cloud-high but sober: The average airline passenger doesn't drink while aloft. Records of national airlines show an average of only 17 drinks served per flight — on planes holding from 44 to 129 passengers.

Have you heard this before? Because of their poorly developed vocal cords, giraffes communicate with each other mainly by switching their tails.

The price of success: "There is plenty of room at the top," says Rosina Pagan. "But there is no room to sit down."

How things are done: A management report found that of the 130 letters a day the average company president gets, here is what happens to them: 50 per cent never even reach his eye. He takes some action on 35 (including throwing some into the wastebasket). And 15 per cent he passes on to others to handle as they decide.

It was Alfred E. Smith who observed: "The American people never carry an umbrella. They prepare to walk in eternal sunshine."

Just Who Makes Cuban Policy?

By George Sokolsky

In June 1957, the "National Review" had this to say:

"The 'New York Times' seems to be taking over sponsorship of the revolt against President Batista of Cuba that is being led by the ex-law student, Fidel Castro, and his miscellaneous dissidents, locally and internationally backed by the Communists."

"Two months ago 'Times' correspondent Herbert L. Matthews, after spending a couple of days with Fidel in his Sierra Maestra camp, wrote an account that read like a Public Relations hand-out. Matthews is now back in Santiago, not far from the Sierra Maestra, wiring dispatches that would qualify him as chief of Fidel's psychological warfare section."

"Already in a quote attributed to a graduate student, Matthews is displaying the Larger Vision: 'Fidel has lifted Cuba out of the inertia that was engulfing us as it has the people of the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela.'"

We are now in the last quarter of 1959 and we know that Castro is not the angelic figure that Herbert Matthews painted him to be. We know that Cuba is a Kremlin satellite. We know it precisely now because Castro himself said so in an impromptu press interview at Idelwild airport. I listened to it on television. Castro did not use the word, satellite. But the implications were clear.

However, it was this same Herbert Matthews who was called in by the State Department to brief a new ambassador to Cuba.

In his testimony before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, Ambassador Earl E. T. Smith said:

"... Mr. Matthews informed me that he had very knowledgeable views of Cuba and Latin American nations, and had seen the same things take place in Spain. He believed that it would be in the best interest of Cuba and the best interest of the world in general when Batista was removed from office."

The following colloquy is significant:

"Mr. Sourwine. Mr. Smith, when you talked with Matthews to get the briefing before you went to Cuba, was he introduced to you as having any authority from the State Department or as being connected with the State Department in any way?"

"Mr. Smith. ... You asked me a short while ago who arranged the meeting with Mr. Matthews."

"Mr. Sourwine. And you said Mr. Wieland."

Mr. Smith. I said William Wieland, but William Wieland also had to have the approval of Roy Rubottom, who was then Assistant Secretary of State for Latin American Affairs."

"Mr. Sourwine. I asked if, when you were sent to Mr. Matthews for this briefing, he was introduced to you as having any official connection with the State Department or any authority from the Department?"

"Mr. Smith. Oh, no. I knew who he was, and they obviously knew I knew who he was, but I believe that they thought it would be a good idea for me to get the viewpoint of Herbert Matthews, and also I think that Herbert Matthews is the leading Latin American editorial writer for The New York Times. Obviously, the State Department would like to have the support of The New York Times. ... I believe there was a close connection ... between the Latin American desk and Herbert Matthews. ... I would say that Mr. Wieland and all those who had anything to do with Cuba had a close connection with Herbert Matthews."

"I will go further than that. I will say that when I was Ambassador, that I was thoroughly aware of this, and sometimes made the remark in my own Embassy that Mr. Matthews was more familiar with the State Department thinking regarding Cuba than I was."

Herbert Matthews has been a reporter and correspondent since 1922. He has served in many foreign posts. He was "The New York Times" correspondent in the Spanish Civil War from 1936 to 1939, and during this period showed editorial sympathy for the side which has come to be an adjunct of international Communism.

The Spanish Civil War was a struggle among Communists, anarchists and the Falange for the control of Spain. Out of it eventually came the regime of Franco.

Like many foreign correspondents, Matthews became personally absorbed in this situation and his articles were more editorial than objective. It was this experience in Spain which won him recognition as an expert in Spanish and Latin American affairs. He influenced American public opinion in favor of Fidel Castro who is now our enemy.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Herald welcomes expressions of opinions from its readers on subjects of general interest through letters to the editor.

We insist that all letters must be signed with the name and address of the writer. However, the name will not be used in publication of the letter if the writer requests. A pen name or initials will be substituted. We will NOT use anonymous letters. We believe that a letter to the editor column can serve as a public forum. The editor reserves the right to shorten over-long letters and to reject letters which contain personal attacks on individuals. The column will not be used to religious controversy of any kind.

Food with less labor," says Garst, "and I showed him how to do it."

Paragraph 19: V. V. Matskevich the Soviet Minister of Agriculture whom I escorted around the United States in 1955 saw Garst's farm and invited him to the Soviet Union. Garst went, sold Khrushchev some hybrid corn, and so impressed the Soviet Premier with his blunt opinions on how Russian agriculture could be put on the right track that Khrushchev accepted Garst's invitation to visit Coon Rapids.

The rest of the article goes on to tell of the success of Mr. Garst's methods in Russia. If any of my readers feel compassion toward the Russian people and are inclined to place all of the blame on the heads of the Russian leaders, then they should get the October 10, issue of U. S. News and World Report and read the article: Khrushchev's Man in the Street — What He's Like."

In closing, I will make no attempt to summarize or to criticize — you can think as well as I and form your own judgments. The rest is up to you.

To The Editor:

I would very much like to express my feelings, in regards to the subject of wrecking yards in Pickaway County. I have been watching with much interest, the various letters to the editor that have appeared in the paper, written by some of the so-called civic minded people of our community, and it is almost comical to me to read some of their remarks.

We operate a 24 hour wrecker and towing service, as well as an auto salvage yard, so we are naturally very interested in these letters that have been appearing in print.

It is a funny thing, but some of the people that have written, or some like them are what creates our business. You would be surprised at the number of civic minded folks who are pulled out of wrecked automobiles every week, more dead than alive, many times because they simply didn't use their heads. Many times their autos are sold to one of the yards for salvage, just the same as any one else's car.

These people don't seem to realize that three must be an outlet for these wrecked cars. We are doing our best to furnish this outlet, in a fair and honest manner. To my notion, this is a fine and honorable business to be in. I have done this type of work for nearly four years, and I can't think of anyone in this town that I would trade jobs with. The work is interesting, and most of the people that we deal with are good, honest, and reliable people, such as the new car dealers and the independent garages in this town.

Where do some of these people that are so opposed to us think the parts come from that are used in repairing their cars, when new parts aren't available? Many times this means the difference between getting a person's car back in immediate running order or waiting a couple of weeks for parts to come from the factory.

We are happy to be here in this community to serve the general public, and I only wish that some name or initials will be substituted. We will NOT use anonymous letters. We believe that a letter to the editor column can serve as a public forum. Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

That's Life, Mom!

DEAR ABBY: My son, who is in the third grade, is being exposed to a certain phase of sex education in the classroom that does not meet with my approval. His teacher is "expecting". She announced it to the class.

The children watch for her daily progress and ask her a lot of questions, which my son says she answers.

She told them she was entering her fifth month and plans to teach through her seventh.

I always thought it was the parents' place to tell their children the facts of life, not a stranger's. A third grader has plenty of time to learn those things, and now he is asking ME questions. I resent having been pushed into explaining things before he is ready. My neighbor says I am narrow-minded. Am I?

ONE BOY'S MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: A child who is old enough to ask, is old enough to be told. Exposure to motherhood in the developmental stages can do your son no harm. I think he is fortunate to have such a teacher.

DEAR ABBY: My husband calls himself a business man and makes a very good living. I have seen him buy cigarettes by the carton from a minor boy (17). He pays this boy much less than the regular wholesale price. He does some fancy figuring and is cheating the boy and breaking the law to boot. This bird can read and write and has been in business for 20 years. He is setting a bad example for our 16-year-old son who sees what he is doing and is nobody's fool. If I turned my husband in the whole family would suffer because of this idiot. What can I do?

HELPLESS
DEAR HELPLESS: Your husband may be financially solvent, but he is morally bankrupt. If you can't convince him to go straight — go straight to a lawyer and arrange separate maintenance (no divorce) and see if that doesn't change his business tactics.

DEAR ABBY: My letter might come as a shock to Howard, who raised Cain with you for okaying padding. I am a man of 40 who spent 20 years in Uncle Sam's Navy. I've gone out with girls all over the world. Some were padded and some were not. Some were all there and some were all there and yet more, too. I never enjoyed their company any more or less for these features. Last year I met and married the woman worth waiting for. She had false teeth and false this and false that I didn't know anything was false.

Duck Hunters Reminded of Shooting Hours

Local hunters are reminded that after the first of duck hunting starts one half hour before sunrise and lasts until sunset during each day of the season.

A split season will hold forth here this season. Duck, Coot and Merganser season opens noon Thursday and lasts until November 24 for the first half of the season and from noon December 23 to December 31 the final half.

Goose season opens noon Thursday and ends December 28. A daily bag limit of three ducks and six in possession after opening day will be allowed.

Waterfowl hunters must know their ducks this season. Redheads and canvasbacks, deepwater diving ducks, are completely protected this year due to their scarcity. In addition only one wood duck and one hooded merganser will be allowed in the bag. Hunters are urged to learn to recognize ducks on the wing and to be cautious when shooting.

HERE is the sunrise and sunset table for this area as released by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife.

Browns Show Top Offense To Cowboys

DALLAS AP — The Cleveland Browns put on their biggest offensive show of the season Sunday in trouncing the winless Dallas Cowboys, 48-7, in the Cotton Bowl.

They scored on passes, runs, a pass interception and a 90-yard kickoff return by halfback Bobby Mitchell that opened the second half.

Their victory celebration, however, was tempered somewhat by a knee injury suffered by Ray Renfro, fleet flanking back. He was injured in the first quarter in a collision with Tom Franckhauser, a defensive back, and sat out the remainder of the game. X-rays are planned today to determine the extent of the injury.

The victory, third straight for the Browns, left them the only undefeated and untied team in the National Football League. However, the New York Giants, who had a 3-0 record before Sunday's 24-2 tie with the Washington Redskins, remain in a percentage tie with the Browns for the lead in the NFL's Eastern Conference.

Except for concern over Renfro's injury, Coach Paul Brown was pleased with the Cleveland showing.

"The defense did a fine job, particularly in the first half," he said. "They kept the pressure on Eddie LeBaron."

Pressure of the defensive line proved too much for LeBaron, who gave the Browns considerable trouble during his years as quarterback for the Redskins. His successors, Don Heinrich and Don Meredith, had little better luck.

PURDUE UPSETS OHIO 24-21 — Ohio State's Bob Klein (19) is tackled during the 2nd quarter of the Ohio State-Purdue game in West Lafayette, Indiana. Watching as Purdue halfback Jim Tiller (21) is about to put the finishing touches to the tackle is teammate Bob Bogel (73). Bernie Allen, Purdue's QB, kicked three extra points, passed brilliantly, supplied clutch yardage and kicked a 32-yard field goal that tied a 24-21 upset victory for the Boilermakers over previously unbeaten Ohio State.

Ole Miss Plays It Cool In Drive for Grid Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The heat's on Mississippi, but Ole Miss is playing it cool in a shot at its first national championship in college football. Halfway through the campaign, the Rebels still are unbeaten, and haven't had any particular trouble in any of their five games.

That situation may change this weekend, however, when Mississippi plays Arkansas at Little Rock, where Ole Miss has lost two of three in the past eight years.

National Loop Ready for Expansion

CHICAGO (AP)—Owners of the National League meet today presumably to award major league baseball franchises to Houston and New York City.

Houston appears certain to receive its franchise to operate by 1962 but New York representatives must come up with a guarantee that a new stadium will be built by 1962 or that an arrangement will be worked out with the New York Yankees for purposes of leasing Yankee Stadium.

Warren Giles, National League president, has promised some kind of action on expansion.

"We're going to do something definite," Giles said recently. "We have delayed long enough; we're not going to drag our feet any longer."

The American League will meet next Monday when it will probably screen applications for franchises. The American League has received applications from 18 cities but it is expected to lean toward Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

The American League, chastened at losing the Houston territory to the senior circuit, has one faction stumping to move a team into Los Angeles.

Walter O'Malley, owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers and head of the National League's expansion committee, last week said he is sure Houston will qualify and added that he hoped New York would work out an agreement with the Yankee management to play in Yankee Stadium.

The New York Board of Estimate more than a year ago approved the building of a $10 million stadium in Long Island but little progress has been made since.

Maserati Wins, Then Conks Out

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Bill Krause's Birdcage Maserati had to be towed from the track, but that was after the Long Beach Calif., driver had won the Riverside Grand Prix for sports cars Sunday.

Krause, 27, made no pit stops during the 203.4-mile grind and his car ran out of fuel just after he got the checkered flag. He covered the distance in 2 hours, 13 minutes, 10 seconds for an average speed of 91.5 miles per hour. Krause took home $7,000 of the $25,950 pot.

Last year, American fishermen bought more than 250 million worms.

Elsa Has 9 Straight Points

Asa Elsa, former Circleville High School football standout, now is one of the top stars for Bowling Green State University.

Utilized primarily as a place-kicker, Elsa has connected with nine straight points - after - touchdown for the Falcons who have won all four of their starts so far this season.

Elsa scored two more extra points Saturday as the BGs defeated Toledo, 14-3.

The week before the kicking star booted two conversions to give his Falcons a 14-13 victory over Western Michigan.

Food Dealers Meeting

CLEVELAND (AP) The 61st annual convention of the Ohio Retail Food Dealers opened here Sunday night. More than 500 grocers are attending.

SUMTER, S. C. (AP) — Bobby Richardson, a New York Yankee hero of the World Series, says "I'd much rather play baseball before 70,000 people" than face the several hundred hometown folks who welcomed him back Sunday.

"I don't think I'm hot, I'm just nervous," said the perspiring second baseman after the ceremony. A banner across the street in this city of 25,000 proclaimed, "Welcome Home Bobby 'Grand Slam' Richardson," in tribute to his bases-clearing homer.

Duck Hunters Reminded of Shooting Hours

Local hunters are reminded that after the first day, duck hunting starts one half hour before sunrise and lasts until sunset during each day of the season.

A split season will hold forth here this season. Duck, Coot and Merganser season opens noon Thursday and lasts until November 24 for the first half of the season and from noon December 23 to December 31 the final half.

Goose season opens noon Thursday and ends December 28.

A daily bag limit of three ducks and six in possession after opening day will be allowed.

Waterfowl hunters must know their ducks this season. Redheads and canvasbacks, deepwater diving ducks, are completely protected this year due to their scarcity. In addition only one wood duck and one hooded merganser will be allowed in the bag. Hunters are urged to learn to recognize ducks on the wing and to be cautious when shooting.

HERE is the sunrise and sunset table for this area as released by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife.

Browns Show Top Offense To Cowboys

DALLAS AP — The Cleveland Browns put on their biggest offensive show of the season Sunday in trouncing the winless Dallas Cowboys, 48-7, in the Cotton Bowl.

They scored on passes, runs, a pass interception and a 90-yard kickoff return by halfback Bobby Mitchell that opened the second half.

Their victory celebration, however, was tempered somewhat by a knee injury suffered by Ray Renfro, fleet flanking back. He was injured in the first quarter in a collision with Tom Franckhauser, a defensive back, and sat out the remainder of the game. X-rays are planned today to determine the extent of the injury.

The victory, third straight for the Browns, left them the only undefeated and untied team in the National Football League. However, the New York Giants, who had a 3-0 record before Sunday's 24-24 tie with the Washington Redskins, remain in a percentage tie with the Browns for the lead in the NFL's Eastern Conference.

Except for concern over Renfro's injury, Coach Paul Brown was pleased with the Cleveland showing.

"The defense did a fine job, particularly in the first half," he said. "They kept the pressure on Eddie LeBaron."

Pressure of the defensive line proved too much for LeBaron, who gave the Browns considerable trouble during his years as quarterback for the Redskins. His successors, Don Heinrich and Don Meredith, had little better luck.

PURDUE UPSETS OHIO 24-21 — Ohio State's Bob Klein (19) is tackled during the 2nd quarter of the Ohio State-Purdue game in West Lafayette, Indiana. Watching as Purdue halfback Jim Tiller (21) is about to put the finishing touches to the tackle is teammate Bob Bogel (73). Bernie Allen, Purdue's QB, kicked three extra points, passed brilliantly, supplied clutch yardage and kicked a 32-yard field goal that tied a 24-21 upset victory for the Boilermakers over previously unbeaten Ohio State.

Ole Miss Plays It Cool In Drive for Grid Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The heat's on Mississippi, but Ole Miss is playing it cool in a shot at its first national championship in college football. Halfway through the campaign, the Rebels still are unbeaten, and haven't had any particular trouble in any of their five games.

That situation may change this weekend, however, when Mississippi plays Arkansas at Little Rock, where Ole Miss has lost two of three in the past eight years. But Mississippi certainly did nothing to hurt its No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press poll last Saturday night.

The Rebels rolled up 494 yards running and passing while beating Tulane 25-13. Quarterback Jake Gibbs again was the Rebel rouser, pitching three touchdown passes to end Johnny Brewer and running six yards for the other score.

While Mississippi was stretching its two-season winning streak to nine, second-ranked Iowa (4-0) defeated Wisconsin 28-21, third-ranked Ohio State was split 24-21 by Purdue and fourth-rated Syracuse, the defending national champ, beat off stubborn Penn State 21-15 for a 15-game streak.

Navy and Missouri, continued to press the leaders. The Midwesterners, ranked No. 5, won their eighth in a row by winning 41-14 in the first meeting of the two service academies. Missouri (5-0) ranked No. 6, beat Kansas State 45-0.

Seventh-ranked Baylor (4-0) beat Texas Tech 14-7 as Ronnie Bull hauled a screen pass 50 yards for one TD, then went one yard for the other.

Clemson, rated eighth, was upset for the second year in a row by Maryland, 19-17. And ninth-ranked Kansas failed in its bid to overcome still-dangerous Oklahoma in the Big Eight, coming off with 13-13 tie in the Sooners' conference opener. Minnesota, rated No. 10, made a bid to move up by rocking Illinois 21-10. Only the Gophers and Iowa are unbeaten in the Big Ten.

Syracuse and Navy have another chance to pick up backers this weekend. Syracuse plays at West Virginia. Navy plays at Penn.

Among the contenders for the top 10, Washington (4-1) goes against Oregon State without All-America quarterback Bob Schloredt. The Huskies' ace suffered a broken collar bone in a 10-8 victory over UCLA that tightened Washington's grasp on the Big Five lead. Michigan State (2-1-1) goes against Indiana, after knocking Notre Dame 21-0. And Tennessee (3-0-1) meets Chattanooga, after beating back Alabama 20-7.

Yankee Hero Shy Of Home Crowds

SUMTER, S. C. (AP) — Bobby Richardson, a New York Yankee hero of the World Series, says "I'd much rather play baseball before 70,000 people than face the several hundred hometown folks who welcomed him back Sunday."

"I don't think I'm hot, I'm just nervous," said the perspiring second baseman after the ceremony. A banner across the street in this city of 25,000 proclaimed, "Welcome Home Bobby 'Grand Slam' Richardson," in tribute to his bases-clearing homer.

Elsea scored two more extra points Saturday as the BG's defeated Toledo, 14-3.

The week before the kicking star booted two conversions to give his Falcons a 14-13 victory over Western Michigan.

Steel Industry Research Men Confident of Improved Demand

Mon AD, No. 11: Steel CLEVELAND (AP) — In spite of a predicted recession, it was reported by Steel magazine today commercial research men in the steel industry are pegging 1961 steel product consumption at 75 million tons, with 70 million as the absolute minimum.

The weekly trade magazine said steel consumption for 1960 is expected to total about 76 million finished product tons. That would mean 105 million ingot tons consumed in 1960—equivalent to an operating rate of 70 per cent of capacity.

Researchers have stressed the fact that under the worst conditions imaginable, the demand for steel is expected to be stronger six months from now than it is today. If steel were consumed at an annual rate of only 65 million tons next year, say the researchers, monthly shipments would have to average 5.4 million tons—nearly half a million tons more than they've been averaging for the last three months.

The journal said it looks for a 10-point jump in the steel industry's operating rate by the first quarter of next year.

Steel said demand will automatically increase by one million tons a month—the rate at which stockpiles have been shrinking—when buyers stop cutting inventories.

However, it was pointed out, there's no indication that buyers will step up their purchases next month in anticipation of higher prices.

Market analysts predict that the industry's operating rate will average 54 per cent this month, 57 per cent in November and 61 per cent in December.

Last week, steelmakers operated their furnaces at 54.6 per cent of capacity, 70.12 percentage points from the previous week's revised rate. Output was about 1,556,000 ingot tons.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Cool Canadian air moved into all of Ohio over the weekend, bringing an end to warm autumn weather. Temperatures dipped over most of Ohio overnight under clear skies, except for the south-east portion along the Ohio River, where some cloudiness remained to act as a blanket.

Patchy ground fog formed in the central portion near sunrise today, with heavier fog along the Ohio River. At sunrise, temperatures ranged from 42 at Cleveland and Columbus to 52 at Chesapeake and Cincinnati. Dayton had 44.

Today we'll have mostly fair and dry weather, with mild afternoon temperatures. Tonight, under clear skies, temperatures will be somewhat cooler.

the compacts. The 4-coil Control Arm suspension is the same kind as on full-size '61 Buicks so you ride "on velvet." The Hide-Away drive shaft gives more flat floor space.
